

The promotion of communist resentment by the emerging leftist government will cause negative consequences announcing all-round decline, developmental lag, left-wing populism, encompassing failure, neo-liberal fascism, anti-European movement, capital authority, popular uprisings, any injustice and lower pensions.